

Black History Month Program

February 4, 2018 - 2 p.m.

Eatontown Community Center, 72 Broad Street

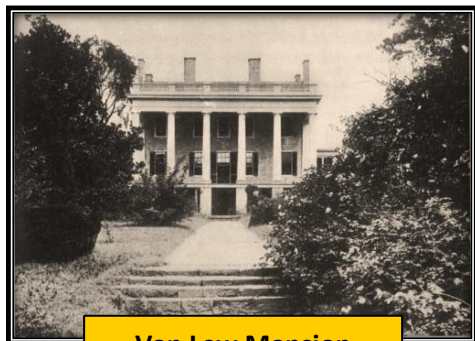

The Eatontown Historical Committee presents Lorraine Stone, an acclaimed performance artist of many talents who brings to life historic and heroic African American women in her performances.

A resident of Eatontown, Lorraine Stone holds a B.A. in Communications Arts and Sciences and has worked as a newspaper and television journalist as well as director of Trinity School for the Arts at Trinity Episcopal Church in Asbury Park.

From the Big House to the White House

The Story of Mary Bowser - A Union Spy in the Confederate White House

Van Lew Mansion

During her presentation Lorraine Stone will bring to life the story of Mary Bowser. Born a slave on the John Van Lew plantation in Richmond, Virginia, Bowser's life took several turns that put her in the position to aid the North in its battle against the Confederacy in the most unusual way.

This is a free event and light refreshments will be served.

Confederate White House